November 17, 2004
Nancy Ryles Elementary School

Board Members Present: Chair: Bruce Miller
Vice Chair: Alton Harvey, Sr
Secretary: Phyllis Galitz
Treasurer: Marian Griffiths

NAC General Membership Present: Scott Galitz
Frederick Swauger
Joan Chapin
Mike Gallagher

The meeting was opened by Bruce Miller, Chairman at 7:00 p.m.

Bruce introduced himself and had attendees do the same.

Lt. Brown of Station #69, Cooper Mountain, Tualatin Valley Fire and Rescue made his presentation. Spoke briefly about the fire departments role in attending NAC meetings. Questions were taken from the attendees. Fire Sprinklers were discussed, as were speed bumps within the city. A video is available from the fire department further describing types of speed bumps.

Doug Colling from Code Services of the Mayor's office made his presentation. He presented a slide show outlining the duties and responsibilities of the Code Services program. Code violation complaints can be reported through the city of Beaverton's web site –

Parking violations are to be reported to the Police Department

Our NAC is zoned R5 - Residential – no side or rear yard parking allowed.

The City regulates all signs.

Brian L. Strohl is the Code Services Program person that handles the area of Beaverton that encompasses our NAC.

Neighbors Southwest NAC elected its board:

Chairman: Bruce Miller

Vice Chairman: Alton Harvey, Sr

Secretary: Phyllis Galitz

Treasurer: Marian Griffiths

Attendee Mike Gallagher spoke about Community Emergency Response Team (CERT) training. It is an eight-week program put on by the Director of Emergency Management Office. About 100 people have trained for this. He believes it is something we should be involved in – making sure our NAC is staffed with needed help in an emergency thereby freeing up city services for more serious emergencies.

It was decided there would be no NAC meeting in December due to holidays, but the board will meet at Bruce Millers home at a date to be determined in December.

The meeting was adjourned at 8:25 p.m.
